OUTLINES.

A terrible marine disaster resulting in the death of 100 persons occurred yesterday at the entrance to the port of Valetta, in the Island of Malta. A British vessel caught fire and aided by explosives the flames spread so rapidly that efforts to escape were in vain. By prompt assistance from ships in the harbor many of those aboard the vessel were saved——The property of the Odell Manufacturing Co., at Concord, which was recently placed in the hands of receivers, was sold yesterday, under order of court, to Henry H. Dechert for $166,000——Andrew Carnegie in declining the invitation to appear before the Ways and Means Committee stated that he had served his full time in Washington upon tariff matters——At a banquet of the Manufacturers and Dealers Club, in Chicago, last night, alarm was expressed at the prohibition wave which is sweeping over the country and plans for combating it effectively were voiced by the speakers——State troops are sent to Perth Amboy, N. J., to quell riotous strikers——In the court at Norfolk the judge refuses to try question of present insanity of Gilbert, sentenced to death for murder of Miss Morse——The President has designated the cruises of revenue cutters for the winter months——President Falkner, of the National Window Glass Workers, who was at the White House dinner, says labor is satisfied with Roosevelt's ideas for its improvement ——Yesterday's automobile rate at Savannah was won by the Italian car driven by Hilliard, of Boston. There was only one serious accident——Vice President Archbold continued his testimony yesterday. He gave some interesting statistics about the oil business——A committee is formed in New York to forward the Lincoln Memorial University endowment movement——New York markets: Money on call easy at 1 1-2 to 2 per cent, ruling rate 1 3-4, closing bid 1 1-2 offered at 1 3-4. Cotton quiet, middling uplands 9.45, middling gulf 9.70. Flour steady. Wheat firm, No. 2 red 1.11 1-2 to 1.12 1-4 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2, 71 1-2 elevator. Oats steady, mixed 54 1-2. Rosin steady. Turpentine quiet.

So Roosevelt has admitted another to membership in his Ananias Club.

Governor Glenn will be with the A. & M. College rooters at Norfolk today.

Mr. Kitchin was trying on the Governor's Mansion this week. We hope he found it a comfortable fit.

Attorney General Bonaparte does not seem to have much confidence in his application for a certiorari from the Supreme Court.

We hope you have many things to be thankful for today and will have many more by the time next Thanksgiving day comes around.

They have been trying to get Rockefeller on the witness-stand for a long time. Now that they have succeeded what have they gained by it?

Our Government will be disappointed if China repays the return of that fourteen million dollar indemnity in expressions of gratitude alone.

If Governor Haskell could get an opportunity to bring his suit against Hearst to a hearing the public might find out the truth about those oil land grants in Oklahoma.

With Charles P. Taft talking about running for the Senate from Ohio and Burton for Speaker of the House things are getting in a mighty stir among the Republicans.

Having gone so far on the tariff revision question Carnegie should give the House Ways and Means Committee the benefit of a fuller explanation of opinion.

Carnegie's change of views on the tariff question must have come after making his campaign contribution, as all he gave was to the Republican party.

It took a decision of the Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia to convince the people of that State that beer containing four per cent of alcohol is intoxicating. Atlanta's Mayor could have told them that.

The general impression seems to be that there will be no important legislation of a public nature and an unusually small number of private bills passed at the next session of the Legislature.

It is said Mrs. W. H. Taft is the best cook in Ohio. No doubt that accounts for the President's constant smile. We hope White House cooking wont make a dyspeptic of him and take it away.

The periodical report that some man has overcome the difficulties in the way of making paper out of cotton stalks comes along on time. A cotton stalk paper company, with a capital of $500,000, has been organized in Atlanta.

SUPREME COURT

Opinion Handed on Question of Whether Husband Can Slander Wife.

THE OPINIONS YESTERDAY

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 25.—The Supreme Court, in State against Fulton, of Guilford, divides on the question of whether a husband is punishable for malicious and wanton slander of his wife, the majority sustaining State vs. Edens, 95th North Carolina, that the husband is not amenable and Chief Justice Clark, Associate Justice Connor filing dissenting opinions.

Justice Brown, for the majority of the court takes the ground that since it has been settled in the Edens case that it is not a crime for a husband thus to slander his wife, this position should not now be overruled. Justice Walker in concurring, sets out that while there is no doubt all too many husbands are guilty of this offense, still, under the ruling in State vs. Bell, 136 N. C., they should not be convicted because the ruling in State vs. Edens has been and is now in force excepting husbands.

The dissent by Justice Connor takes the ground that at common law it is a crime for a man to slander any person, therefore, the court should not, as in the Edens case, read into the statutory law an exception in the case of husbands.

Chief Justice Clark, in dissenting from the majority opinion, declares that since husbands are not allowed to chastise wives, they should not be permitted to defame her character and good name.

The court disposed of 12 opinions today: Brimes vs Bryan, Edgecombe, no error; Dry Goods Co., vs. McDougall, New Hanover, error; Hanstein vs. Ferrell, Sampson, reversed; Kinston vs. Loftin, affirmed; Reeves vs. Seaboard Air Line, Lee, no error; State vs. Fulton, Guilford, affirmed; Cotton vs. North Carolina Railroad, Guilford, no error; Ravis vs. Thornton, Gaston, no error; Powell vs. Woodcock, Buncombe, affirmed; Grocery Co., vs. Forsyth, affirmed; Pope vs. Greensboro Life Ins. Co., Catawba, dismissed for non compliance with rules; Michael vs. Moore, Catawba, dismissed under Rule 17.

Governor Glenn and Governor-elect Kitchin agree on Tuesday, Jan. 12th, as the date for the latter's inauguration. Mr. Kitchin wanted it on the 13th or 14th, but Governor Glenn has to be in New York on the 14th.

Governor Glenn declines to interfere with the sentence of Z. K. Williamson, of Columbus county, sentenced to two years on the roads for seduction under promise of marriage. The Governor and Council of State today heard arguments for and against the pardon.

According to the annual custom on Thanksgiving four State convicts will be pardoned tomorrow by the Governor on recommendation of the prison authorities. These pardons, the Governor says, are only granted where the defendants are long-termed prisoners who seem to have no friends or relatives to plead their cases and who have good records. Heretofore only two pardons have been granted on Thanksgiving but the Governor says as this is the last time he can exercise this clemency he issues four. They are as follows: Jeff Mace, white, 15 years from Madison in 1896 for murder; Walter Newton, white, 30 years from Granville in 1894 for murder; Will White, colored, 25 years from Iredell in 1893, for burglary; Moses Pender, colored, 20 years from Edgecombe in 1896 for murder. All have perfect records.

The Governor also pardoned today Robt. Lilliston, of Lynchburg, Va, convicted of killing Chas. E. Smith in the union station here during the State Fair in 1905. Nothing was given out from the executive office in regard to the pardon but the father of Lilliston received the pardon and took it to Nash county last night where he found his son at work on a railroad construction gang.

Gracie James, released by the police after being arrested in the Smith murder case, has been re-arrested by the coroner, charged with being an accessory to the crime. Friday morning there will be a hearing of the case at which some 15 witnesses will be examined. Four or more persons will testify to having seen Smith alive in East Raleigh as early as 1:30 or 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Associated Charities this afternoon distributed Thanksgiving dinners to several hundred needy poor.

The November Bulletin of the State Agricultural Department gives report of the inspection of foods for cattle, etc. This year the seizures of adulterated goods amounted to only about 20 car loads, coming mostly from Tennessee and Virginia.

A small army of moonshiners are here for trial in the Federal Court, 20 being in jail from various counties but most of them being able to give bond. Judge Boyd is very strict in such cases and many of them are quaking in their boots. Deputy Merritt has just returned from Granville where he destroyed a large moonshine distillery.

Today the body of Mrs. Ida Manley Baker, who died here yesterday afternoon and who was a daughter of the late Governor Charles Manley, of Tarboro, was taken to Tarboro for burial, funeral services being previously conducted from Christ Church. With the remains went her son, Mr. Manley Baker, and her daughter, Mrs. Finley L. Williamson, both of Burlington, who were here with her in her last hours.

It is said that the Wake Forest students will attend the inauguration of Governor Kitchin in a body.

Quartermaster General Francis Macon was here today and made before the Governor very complete plans for rifle practice in the National Guard in the future with company ranges and regimental ranges, besides the range at the permanent camp near Morehead City. He has secured the services of Capt. Macy, the finest rifle shot in America, for instructor next year.

It is announced that Alex J. Field, Esq., of this city, is to be the private Secretary to Governor Kitchin, succeeding A. H. Arrington, who has held that office for years, admirably well, under Governor Glenn.

Last night at 7:13 o'clock a magnificent meteor appeared in the southwestern sky of such great size and brilliance that it made the streets for a moment almost as light as day. It frightened a number of persons.

NO PAPER TOMORROW.

Conforming to the long established custom in Wilmington newspaperdom, the Star will not be issued tomorrow morning as usual on account of the holiday, this being to give employes of the paper opportunity of today joining with the rest of the world in the season of joy and thanksgiving. We are sure the very large majority of our readers will bear with us in this brief suspension with the assurance that should any really great news item develop at home or abroad, the paper will serve them in the form of an extra. The Star extends to each and every one of its readers the compliments of the season.

SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S.

Mission Being Conducted by Archdeacon Webber Concludes Tonight.

Yesterday was a very full day and a glorious one in the mission being conducted by Archdeacon Webber at St. John's Church. Opening with the Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M., the archdeacon preached at 11 o'clock on "Intercessory Prayer," which was a beautiful and helpful sermon on the value of one man's prayer for another and the consecration it brings. At 4 o'clock there was a special service for women at which the archdeacon spoke with unusual charm on "Higher Womanhood," pointing out some of the things woman can do in the work of the Master. There was a large congregation and all were delighted with the address. At the evening service the sermon was on "The Eight Glories of Christ" and this was a powerful appeal for Christian living.

On Tuesday the special feature of the service was a children's hour in the afternoon for children. At this service the archdeacon told with charming effect upon the little ones the story of the foxes, carrying home to them affectionately and beautifully the joys of consecrating their little selves to Christ.

Today the services will begin with the celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and the regular Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by Archdeacon Webber at 11 A. M., when there will be an offering for the Thompson orphanage. There will be no afternoon service, but at 8 o'clock the usual evening service will be conducted, the last in the mission. At this service the prelude or introduction to the sermon will be on "The Intermediate State." None should miss this last opportunity of hearing this earnest, helpful man of God.

Suit Against Coast Line.

Through her attorneys, Messrs. Ricaud & Empie and Stevens, Beasley & Weeks, summons was filed in the Superior Court here yesterday by Emma Boney, colored, administrator of John Boney, the young colored man who recently died within a few hours after receiving fatal injuries by falling from a water tank at the Front street station of the A. C. L., in this city. The amount of damages will not be stated until the complaint is filed. Boney carried $250 insurance in the relief department of the company and received his money, the suit now instituted being on the question of whether or not this debars him from bringing suit against the company.

Mayor Springer Returns.

Mayor William E. Springer returned on the afternoon train yesterday from Gainesville, Fla., whither he was summoned on account of the critical illness and subsequent death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Benjamin Rush. The interment was at Gainesville where the deceased was for many years a prominent retired business man, having reached the advanced age of 72 years. His wife preceded him to the grave many years ago and there are surviving now only his sister, Mrs. W. E. Springer, of this city, and a son, who resides at Fayetteville, N. C.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Quiet But Very Appropriate Observance of Festival in Wilmington Today.

SERVICES IN CHURCHES

Announcements of Nearly All Wilmington Pastors—Football and Automobile Races Attract Many—Other Notes.

A quiet but withal a very appropriate and pleasing observance of Thanksgiving is promised in Wilmington today. The weather will likely continue fair and with but little change in temperature, according to the forecast. While many people have left and are leaving to spend the holiday elsewhere, the observance here will be quite general.

There will be a general recession from business, National, State, county and municipal offices being generally closed. At the Postoffice holiday hours will be served and the banks of the city will transact no business. In all, or nearly all, Wilmington churches appropriate services of thanksgiving and prayer will be held and at quite all of them there will be offerings for benevolent causes. The football games between Virginia and Carolina at Richmond and between A. & M. and V. P. I. for the championship of the South at Norfolk, have attracted many and last night's northbound train carried two extra Pullmans and three extra coaches to accommodate the crowds. The International Automobile races at Savannah have also claimed their quota of Wilmington's motor enthusiasts and a great many others, true to the spirit of the holiday, have gone to their homes to spend the day with family and friends. All trains last night were crowded and early calls for this morning were not infrequent, the greater portion of the latter being for valiant Nimrods who will go afield today in quest of game. For the accommodation of others, who expect to take a little jaunt into the country, the Tidewater Power Company has provided a half-hour schedule on the suburban line after 2 o'clock this afternoon and the morning regular schedule will be found abundantly sufficient for those who desire to leave earlier.

In the city there will be much to attract and amuse the people. At the Academy matinee and night "East Lynne" will be the offering, the Crystal Palace and Bijou offer exceedingly attractive bills and the Owls' merry carnival at Fourth and Castle streets will put forth extra effort to please the throngs who are expected there. The carnival concert band will give an open-air programme at Front and Market street this morning according to the programme published in yesterday's paper.

The holiday, broadly speaking, is an annual festival of thanksgiving for the mercies of the closing year. It always occurs on the last Thursday in November and is a legal holiday by proclamation of the President and Governors of States. Beginning with the earlier celebration of the day by the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth in 1621, the day has always ranked in America as the great annual family festival, taking the place which is accorded in England to Christmas. Nowhere in the city today will the day be more appropriately observed than in the various churches of the city where the people will gather in prayer and thanksgiving for the mercies of the year just passed. Special musical programmes have been prepared by many of the choirs. The services as announced by pastors for the day are as follows:

Thanksgiving services today at 11 o'clock at Trinity M. E. Church. The public cordially invited.

Thanksgiving services will be held at 11 A. M. today at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Market and 17th streets.

Thanksgiving Day services at Saint James' Church will be held at 10 o'clock today, conducted by Rev. Thos. P. Noe. Please note the hour of 10 A. M.

Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Front and Queen streets, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor: Services today at 10 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Offering for Barium Springs Orphanage. Public cordially invited.

A service of thanksgiving will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church this morning at 11 o'clock at which the pastor will preach on the theme: "Three Thanksgiving Thoughts." The service will be in English throughout and there will be special music suitable to the occasion. The offering for the day will be devoted to the orphans of the church at large and be sent to the Home at Salem, Va.

Bladen Street M. E. Church: Thanksgiving service at 7:30 o'clock tonight with appropriate sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Hocutt. Public cordially invited.

Grace M. E. Church, Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor: Thanksgiving services at 11 A. M., with appropriate sermon. Members and friends of Grace are requested to bring to the Thanksgiving service this morning packages of groceries and gifts for the poor.

The Thanksgiving Day services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be at 11 A. M. A collection will be received for the Thompson orphanage.

Thanksgiving services will be held at 11 A. M. at Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church with sermon by Dr. McClure, the pastor. Friends and the public cordially invited.

The Thanksgiving service at Fifth Street M. E. Church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. K. D. Holmes. There will be special music by the choir.

In order to allow as many as possible to attend the other special services for the day, the Thanksgiving service at the Christian Church, on Dock street, has been postponed until Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when the public will be cordially welcomed.

Thanksgiving service at St. John's Church with sermon this morning at 11 o'clock. Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. No afternoon service but an evening service in the mission at 8 o'clock as usual.

The Salvation Army, Adjutant Teed, will conduct special services this evening at 8 o'clock at Fourth and Brunswick streets. All are invited.

First Presbyterian Church, Third and Orange streets, Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor: Thangsgiving service this morning at 11 o'clock with offering for the Barium Springs orphanage. All are cordially invited.

Church of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, Rev. Thos. P. Noe rector: Services appropriate to Thanksgiving at 11 A. M. today. The public cordially invited.

There will be no service at the First Baptist Church today, but the Sunday School will have appropriate Thanksgiving exercises with an offering for the orphanage on Sunday afternoon.

SPORTING EVENTS TODAY.

In view of the great local interest in the football games at Norfolk, Richmond and elsewhere today, together with the automobile races at Savannah, Ga., the Star office will answer telephone inquiries as to the result of those events from 7 o'clock until a reasonable hour this evening, giving the best information obtainable as to the games and races. These inquiries will be answered either by telephone or upon personal call at the office. In view of the fact that there will be no issue of the paper tomorrow morning, we are sure our readers will appreciate this special service and the effort will be to give the fullest and most authentic information possible. The 'phone will not be answered until after 7 P. M.

AFTERNOON WEDDING.

Miss Florence Everett Becomes Attractive Bride of Mr. L. G. Bass.

There was solemnized a most charming event yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Everett, 706 Castle street, when their charming daughter, Miss Florence, became the happy bride of Mr. Louis G. Bass, Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist church officiating. The bride was handsomely attired in a blue traveling suit with hat to match. She entered with her maid of honor, Miss Bevie Fales, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss May Landen, and was met at the altar by the groom attended by his brother, Mr. J. M. Bass, as best man. During the ceremony Miss Landen played "Hearts and Flowers."

The popularity of this young couple was attested by the many handsome presents displayed. The decorations were in exquisite taste, the color scheme being green and white. There were many kindly greetings for the bride and groom and a number of congratulations were received. Mr. Bass is a talented young man, a member of the First Baptist church, and holds a responsible position with the A. C. L. Railway. Miss Everett is an accomplished young lady, a member of Southside Baptist church, and has a host of admiring friends who wish for her the best that life holds.

Delicious refreshments were served after which the happy couple left for Florida and other points South where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at 505 South Fourth street after December 1st, where they will be glad to welcome their friends.

Recovering From Bad Accident.

The many friends of Mr. Marion Woodward will be glad to know that after a two weeks' stay at his old home in this city, he is fast recovering from the effects of a rather severe and unusual accident suffered some time ago at Chattanooga, Tenn. He was superintending the loading of some refrigerator cars when by a mis-step he fell down the gangway into one of the cars and remained there for two hours before the workmen were able to find and get him out. As the result of the accident, his entire left side was paralyzed for a time but friends are glad to know that he is now fapidly regaining the use of himself and will be restored fully to health in a short time.

SERMO NTO JUNIORS.

At Immanuel Presbyterian Church on Next Sunday Evening.

The annual sermon to Jeff Davis and Geo. Washington councils, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be preached at Immanuel Presbyterian church next Sunday evening by the pastor, Rev. Jas. S. Crowley. This service is in keeping with the yearly custom of the local councils, which will assemble in the hall on Market street and march to the church in a body. It was first decided that the service be held in the morning, but to enable a larger attendance, evening was later selected.

A PRETTY MARRIAGE

AN ELEGANT RECEPTION

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church Scene of Pretty and Impressive Ceremony Last Night—Reside Here.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated last evening at 8:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, the parties to the marriage vows being Miss Katherine R. Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Fick, and Mr. Lester Malcolm Harvey, formerly of Los Angeles, Cal., two popular and well known young people of this city.

The marriage was attended by a large circle of friends and was followed by a delightful reception tendered to the bridal party and a host of invited acquaintances at the home of the bride's parents, No. 409 South Sixth street.

The church decorations were strikingly pretty, carrying out with unique simpleness the colors of white and green, artistically planned with palms, bamboo, Southern smilax and cut flowers.

The marriage was solemnized promptly at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Snyder, the pastor, officiating. The bride wearing a handsome lace Princess robe over taffeta silk, and carrying bride's roses, entered the church with her sister, Miss Henrietta Fick, the maid of honor, who was becomingly attired in an embroidered robe over yellow taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids, Misses Lula Bargmann, of Charleston, S. C.; Lillie Bornemann, Katherine Gieschen, and Carrie Ortmann, of this city, were gowned in white batiste and yellow sashes. Accompanying the groom was Mr. Carl Fick, a brother of the bride, as best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. William Muller, of Charleston, S. C.; Henry M. Fick, of Charlotte, Fred Tienken and John D. Doscher, Jr., of this city.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fick, No. 409 South Sixth street, where an elegant reception was given the large concourse of friends in attendnace. The color scheme of yellow and white made possible a pretty decoration throughout the home. The reception was in progress until a late hour and during the evening the bride and groom were greeted by their friends and extended the happiest congratulations.

The groom who recently became a resident of Wilmington is pleasantly remembered as the star pitcher of the Wilmington baseball team during the past season. He is a young man of professional ability, great personal popularity and has scores of friends here. The bride is a charming young lady with many admirers. The couple will make their home at No. 505 South Fourth street.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Fick, Jr., of New York, and Mr. Henry Fick, of Charlotte.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Maggie Colvin, No. 902 South Ninth street at 8:30 o'clock last night Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, performed a happy wedding ceremony, uniting in marriage Miss Leila Colvin and Mr. James A. Ellers, popular young people of that section of the city. The bride was attractively attired in a drab travelling suit and was attended as maid of honor by Miss Katie Cowan, who was prettily dressed in light silk. The groom was attended as best man by his friend, Mr. J. H. Debose and the ceremony is spoken of by all in attendance as having been very pretty indeed. After the ceremony there was an enjoyable reception at which dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Ellers will make their home at No. 807 Dawson street, where they will be pleased to receive their friends.

PROVISIONS FOR POOR

Brotherhood of St. James' Will Distribute Them Today.

Following the usual custom each Thanksgiving the St. James' Brotherhood will distribute several wagon loads of groceries to the worthy poor of the city today. The merchants this year were very generous in their contributions and their many kindnesses in assisting to carry out the noble work of the Brotherhood, is jointly appreciated both by this religious organization and those who will receive the Thanksgiving contributions. A committee selected from the Brotherhood will go around on the wagons and distribute baskets to the parties designated by the secretary of the Associated Charities. Some 200 of the worthy poor will receive provisions.

NATIONAL RIVERS AND HARBORS CONGRESS.

As our readers know, the National Rivers and Harbors Congress will hold its fifth annual session in Washington City, beginning December 9th. Mr. James H. Chadbourn, of our city, is the vice president for North Carolina, and Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, will, by appointment of Governor Glenn, be the chairman of the North Carolina delegation to the congress.

In his call for the convening of the congress, Hon. Jos. E. Ransdell, of Louisiana, its president, says this of the aims and purposes of the congress:

"The National Rivers and Harbors Congress advocates a policy, not a project; it represents no particular section or project, but is the direct representative of all sections that have a meritorious claim for the improvement of a river, a lake, a harbor of a canal. This national organization—with delegates from every part of the Union—in national convention assembled ,will advocate and stand for a broad, liberal, comprehensive policy for the improvement by the Federal Government of all waterways that have been examined and favorably reported upon by the United States army engineers and by them recommended to the Congress of the United States as worthy of improvement for the benefit of the commerce of the country.

"The improvements of the waterways of the nation, which this national convention will advocate and discuss, means increased and cheapened transportation facilities for the producer and the consumer, and there is no question before the American people more worthy of their serious thought and consideration than the proper development and utilization of these natural and economic channels of trade and transportation."

This congress and its work is of the highest importance to the whole South, but especially so to North Carolina and our section of the State. Under its declared policy will come the two great schemes in which our people are so much interested—the inland waterway and the deepening of Cape Fear river to thirty feet from Wilmington to the sea and making it navigable the year round from this city to Fayetteville.

If this congress receives the moral support of the people, being such a nationally representative body, it will be able to bring to bear on the Federal Congress and the Government such pressure of public sentiment that it will be bound to succeed in its plans.

If the people of North Carolina want to succeed in their efforts, already begun, to have the National Government carry out the plans for improving Cape Fear river, thus making Wilmington one of the most important seaports on the South Atlantic, they should give this congress their hearty support, for it will have greater weight in securing favorable action than could our people working alone. We hope our State will be well represented at this meeting thereby showing its people's interest in the same and at the same time increasing the congress' interest in the schemes our people are locally desirous of carrying out.

CANNON AND THE TARIFF.

Speaker Cannon may stand by the Republican platform in its declaration on the tariff question, as he says he intends to do, but that declaration should not cause the trusts and standpatters any uneasiness or give hope to those who desire a reduction in many of the tariff schedules. Cannon is opposed to any reduction in the present customs duties and the tariff plank in his party's platform is so worded that he can construe it to suit his personal views on the subject. It declares for a tariff which will give "reasonable profits" to American protected industries. The Speaker, of course, will determine for himself what are reasonable profits. He can declare his opinion to be that none are unreasonable under present rates and therefore stand on his platform while opposing reductions on any articles. He can go further even. He can declare that in his opinion certain industries under protection of the present tariff are not yielding reasonable profits and that therefore the rates should be raised instead of lowered.

Cannon has not said he favors any reduction of the tariff because his party platform has declared for it, and no one is going to hear of his saying so, for he is opposed to such course, which is a very different proposition from the one contained in the Republican platform and declared by the Speaker that he will abide by. His announcement has not fooled his political enemies and should not give hope of his assistance to those who are working for a real revision of the tariff, for those who expect such aid from him will be woefully disappointed.

FIRING ON GERMAN WAR BALLOON.

It seems impossible to keep disturbing incidents out of international affairs in Europe. There was an affair on the Russian-German border Monday which has greatly stirred court circles in both St. Petersburg and Berlin. It was the firing on a German war balloon by Russian soldiers guarding the frontier. On the balloon approaching the frontier those in it were warned not to cross the line, and it appearing to the guards that the warning was not going to be heeded the firing began. No one was hurt and the balloon made a rapid descent. While this occurrence has created much excitement the incident will most likely be closed by notes of explanation on both sides, though it may leave a feeling of suspicion on the part of the Russians that the German war office was trying secretly to examine territory on the border, and leave with the Germans a feeling of resentment at what they consider an affront to their nation.

"It would take a greater number of years than are left me to start at the beginning and build up such a property. The making of a newspaper is like the growing up of a walnut tree—time is a big element."

The above remark in reference to building up a newspaper was made by Charles H. Grasty, for a long time editor of the Baltimore News, who goes to the St. Paul Dispatch. No man ever uttered a greater truth, and it is one fully appreciated by men who have devoted many years of their life in such work.

Governor-elect Kitchin has made a good beginning in his appointments by selecting Mr. Alex. J. Feild to be his private secretary. Mr. Field is secretary of the Democratic State Committee and in that position served his party faithfully and with ability during the recent campaign. His character and capacity will make him a popular secretary to the Governor.

Lynching is still the order of the day in Tennessee, as evidenced by the hanging by a mob of three negroes near the town of Tiptonville for the murder of a deputy sheriff. The case against the negroes was a plain one. There would have been no escape for them from the gallows had their case been allowed to go to the courts. The men who lynched them knew this, still they must take the law into their own hands and commit another capital crime.

The Charlotte Chronicle also copies the article from the Norfolk Landmark which appeared in the Star yesterday and make the following editorial comment, which Wilmingtonians will highly appreciate:

"The Landmark is good at guessing. Wilmington has an extraordinarily alert and energetic set of business men and that port has the backing of the people of the entire State. Then, as a general thing, we send the right kind of Congressmen to Washington."

The judges of the Federal Supreme Court hardly view with pleasure the Government's application for a writ of certiorari in the Standard Oil case as it necessitates their going over a record composed of four million words of evidence and four million more in the exhibits.

While England, Germany and the United States are spending millions in building warships and keeping up their armies, France is gathering gold into her coffers. The Bank of France's stock of gold amounts to $665,000,000, an increase of $125,000,000 in the past year.

If Carnegie was not entitled to the extra profit on the products of his mills made through the tariff on steel why did he take it? It did not occur to him that such tariff ought to be reduced until it had helped him make his pile.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The relation of the Philippines to the United States is the same as that of Porto Rico. Both are dependencies or wards of the nation. Why should they not be allowed to share in our trade on the same basis? Porto Rican coffee is admitted duty-free. Why not Philippine sugar? The vaunted "square deal" at Washington seems to exist nowhere save in the mouth and the imagination of the President.—Virginian-Pilot.

—Cleveland people do not take much stock in the story that Mayor Tom L. Johnson is "busted." They affect to believe that he still has a good bank roll notwithstanding his statement to the contrary. But, assuming that he is "on his uppers," doesn't he know that the protective tariff is still of force and that there are tremendous profits in the steel business? When he was a tariff reform congressman it was Mr. Johnson's boast that he had become a millionaire through the favor of the tariff, which gave him inordinate profits on the steel rails and structural steel forms that he manufactured? Has he forgotten how to make steel rails and T-forms?—Savannah News.

—The statement that Roosevelt has declared that if he had been nominated in place of Taft he would have carried Georgia and broken the solid South, strikes some people as being an unreasonable one, but why should it? It would be in line with his usual boasting and self-conceit, and he doubtless used the expression. We see no reason to suppose that he would have gotten as many votes in Georgia or in any other Southern State as Taft did but of course he cannot be made to believe that he is not the strongest statesman in all the land. Bragging appears to be his long suit and this late exhibition of it is not surprising.—Montgomery Advertiser.

—The father of the commission plan of city government has been found. He turns up in Greensboro in the person of Colonel Joe Reece, editor of The Record, who says that his paper advocated the plan ten years ago. It was for three men to manage the affairs of Greensboro, and the plan was then "novel and unheard of." It seems that he has got the management of his town reduced from the care of twelve to six aldermen, but he is calling for a still further cut to three. "Appoint a committee of a dozen men to do anything," he argues, "and one man generally has all the work to do. Aldermen receive no pay and not being able to devote much time to the work, do hot accomplish results. Still there are objections to almost any plan, yet we have noticed that to get results one must pay for it." And it is always good logic never to expect to get something for nothing.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKINGS.

—'Aren't trusts illegal?" "The answer," answered Senator Sorghum, "depends on whether you expect me to speak as a campaign orator or as a lawyer."—Washington Star.

—"Yes," remarked Farmer Hodge, "my boy, Joe, gets a good deal o' fun out of motor cars." "But he doesn't own a machine.' "Of course not. He's one o' the constables."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—"Your mother tells me you've been naughty again today. When I was a boy I was whipped hard every time I was bad." "But you hadn't as good or wise a father as I have."—Judge.

—"I suppose you heard about our young friend, Spender, undergoing a serious operation yesterday?" "No, what was the operation?" "His father laid him flat and cut off his allowance."—Boston Transcript.

—"Did you know, Willie, that your big sister had invited me to take dinner with your family next Sunday?" asked Mr. Newbeau. "Sure!" replied her little brother. "Ma and pa told her they wanted to see what kind of table manners you've got."

—"And you say you almost starved to death in your last position?" said the kind housewife. "What position was it?" "I was treasurer of a poets' union, mum," responded the dusty wayfarer with a deep sigh.—Chicago Daily eNws.

This woman says she was saved from an operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lena V. Henry, of Norristown, Ga., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered untold misery from female troubles. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death.

"One day I read how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it. Before I had taken the first bottle I was better, and now I am entirely cured.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The "INVINCIBLE" Electric Renovator works on the principle of a strong draft or suction created by a fan or blower (which draws or sucks instead of blows.)

There is attached to the machine a flexible hose, at the end of which is connected a nozzle or tool.

As this tool is passed over the object to be cleaned it sucks or draws up every particle of dirt and dust; not from the top alone but from within the very fabric itself and from beneath it.

The dirt and dust is drawn up bodily into a receiver. No dust is liberated or stirred up into the air to settle on other objects. It is disposed of at once.

There is no dusting to do. When you have cleaned one object it is cleaned for good. Not a sign of dust settles on it from the cleaning of another object next to it. Just the one operation—no more.

We have a set of tools which accompanies each machine, the principle being the same in the use of each.

—Mr. S. D. Simpson, of Catherine Lake, N. C., was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

—Mr. W. L. Burkheimer left last night for Norfolk and Washington to spend several days on business.

—Messrs. Benj. Bell, Jr., and T. D. Meares, Jr., left yesterday for Richmond to attend the football game.

—The regular meeting of the Art Department of the Sorosis, will be held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Mr. William P. Drew went to Savannah yesterday to attend the automobile races which will be an event of interest in that city today.

—Herbert McClammy, Esq., leaves this evening for New York and Philadelphia on a professional trip of a few days.

—Mrs. W. H. Ellis, of Norfolk, Va., is here to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gerdes, and to attend the Fick-Harvey wedding.

—Misses Margaret Harris and Sue Prince, chaperoned by Mrs. Allan Nichols, left yesterday morning for Richmond to witness the Carolina game.

—Miss Mabel Stanley, of Goldsboro, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montgomery and was one of the attendants at the Grant-Montgomery wedding on Tuesday afternoon. Her name was inadvertently omitted in the account of the marriage published yesterday.

—Mr. R. S. McClelland left Tuesday evening for Irvington, N. J., to attend the wedding of Miss Claire Alida Sherman, of Irvington, and Mr. Walter W. McMahon, formerly of this city, but now of Newark, N. J. While away Mr. McClelland will visit New York and Washington, D. C.

—The many friends of Mr. James W. Monroe will be glad to know that he was very much better yesterday and that he has now passed the crisis. His condition was very critical Tuesday afternoon but the family and friends are now very much encouraged.

BOWDEN-HASKETT

A quiet though very pretty marriage was solemnized yesterday evening at St. Matthew's English Lutheran parsonage in the presence of a number of friends, the happy couple being Mr. Marvin Haskett and Miss Ethel Male Bowden, daughter of the late Robert C. Bowden, of Wilmington, the Rev. George S. Bearden officiating. The bride was attired in a becoming going away gown, a beautiful green coat suit and after the ceremony a number of friends and relatives extended happiest congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Haskett left immediately after the wedding for Richmond, Va., where they will spend their honeymoon. A number of friends accompanied them to the station and showered them with rice and best wishes. Returning from their bridal tour the couple will be at home in Wilmington where both are very popular.

Horse Trade in Court.

Differences growing out of a horse trade as between Mr. D. N. Maultsby and Mr. Geo. O. Gaylord, were aired before Justice Bornemann yesterday. Mr. Gaylord had given Mr. Maultsby a due bill for $10 in trade as a balance on the horse, which due bill he later refused to honor on the ground that the horse was not as represented. The plaintiff through Herbert McClammy, Esq., submitted the due bill and Louis Goodman, Esq., counsel for Mr. Gaylord, sought to question the plaintiff as to what the due bill was in payment for, but Justice Bornemann ruled that the question of alleged fraud could not enter into the civil action before a justice and judgment was given for the plaintiff from which Mr. Goodman took an appeal.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The British steamer Atlas, Captain Sargeant, arrived in port yesterday to Heide & Co., from Hamburg, with cargo of kainit, for the Swift Fertilizer Works.

—The schooner Edith H. Symington, Captain Stiles, after discharging cargo of coal to the Springer Coal Company, cleared yesterday for Brunswick, Ga., whence she will proceed to Porto Rico.

—The New York and Chicago stock exchanges and the Savannah Board of Trade will be closed today for Thanksgiving, and there will be no quotations at the local Chamber of Commerce.

—A few defendants on frivolous charges were tried at the session of the police court yesterday, among the number being Clarence Ingram, for vagrancy, the case being dismissed on condition that he leave the city, and Alfred White, for disorderly conduct, who was sent to the roads for 30 days.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY.

Wilmington vs. Raleigh For High School Championship of State.

Manager J. B. Huff announced yesterday that the game between the institutions of Raleigh and Wilmington for the High School football championship of the State would be played here Saturday instead of today as was at first suggested. Raleigh was recently defeated by the high school of Greensboro but by defeating the Wake county squad by a larger score than Greensboro the game will still be a championship winner. The admission to the grounds will be only 25 cents for adults and 15c for children Children's tickets are on sale at Desosset's and those for adults at Kingsbury's pharmacy in the Masonic Temple. The Raleigh team is brought here at great expense and the management hopes for a liberal patronage, prompted not only by civic pride but because the game will be a good one. On account of the near approach of this game, the practice with the Wilmington team this afternoon has been cancelled.

Exercises at the Y. M. C. A.

Thanksgiving will be a notable one at the Y. M. C. A. This afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock there will be a crack basket ball game between the Juniors and this evening the very elaborate gymnasium exhibition will attract a large crowd. The exhibition will be lightened by a delightful programme of music and recitations and a good time is in store for all who attend. An admission of ten cents will be charged, the fund going toward the purchase of new equipment.

Argyle Club to Entertain.

The Argyle Club, recently incorporated by a number of the leading business men of Laurinburg, N. C., has arranged to give an entertainment of a social nature in its apartments on tomorrow evening. There will be a number of brief addresses, the programme including responses by Colonel N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, and Mr. H. W. Malloy, of Wilmington. There will be good music and a season of pleasant diversion for all who attend.

Attend Automobile Races.

A party of prominent Atlantic Coast Line officials and others left yesterday afternoon for Savannah to attend the automobile races. In the party were General Manager W. N. Royall, Mr. W. R. Sullivan, Mr. George B. Elliott, Mr. C. McD. Davis, Mr. P. R. Albright and Mr. A. J. Mitchell. Mr. Pembroke Jones, who is spending some time at Airlie, also left yesterday afternoon and will join the New York party en route to the races at Florence, S. C.

Married on The Sound.

The marriage of Mr. Wilson Rogers and Miss Martha Jane Sneeden, which took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Stephen Sneeden, on Greenville Sound, will be an announcement of much interest to many friends. The ceremony was performed by Justice G. W. Borneman and many friends witnessed the marriage vows and at the conclusion, extended best wishes to the happy couple.

Musicale at Saint Andrew's.

A musicale will be given tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church. This will be given under the auspices of Mr. J. M. Taylor's Sunday School Class. There will be no charge for admission but during the evening a collection will be taken, the proceeds of which will go to the cause of foreign missions.

Pupils' Commendable Work.

The pupils of Hemenway Public School have contributed in penny collections the altogether satisfactory amount of $34 to the Public Library as a Thanksgiving offering to this splendid institution. Pupils and teachers alike of this splendid school are to be congratulated upon this fine showing of their generosity and interest in the public library.

DOES THIS SUIT YOU?

J. Frank Jarman, the enterprising Druggists of 107 Princess street, Wilmington, N. C., are having such a large run on "HUNDIPO," the new Kidney Cure and Nerve Tonic, and hear it so highly praised that they now offer to guarantee it in every case to cure all forms of Kidney Troubles and Nervous Disorders.

They pay for it if it does not give you entire satisfaction.

If you use it, it is their risk, not yours. A 50 cent box sent by mail under positive guarantee.

The Fine is $25.

We call the attention of hunters to the fact that it is against the law in North Carolina to kill songbirds or insect-eating birds at any time of the year, and the fine is $25.

The Theatre

The Academy will have open house this Thanksgiving and will offer for the delight of theatre-goers seeking a good holiday attraction, the well known and always popular emotional drama, "East Lynne." The play will be presented at both matinee and night, and, no doubt, each performance will be greeted by a large audience. The matinee prices will be 25 and 50 cents, while at night the sale will go only to $1.00. Seats for tonight are now selling at Plummer's.

The production will be under the stage direction of Mr. Joseph King, who has earned an enviable reputation by his work in staging such well known successes as "The Ninety and Nine," "Uncle Dan'l," with Fred Wyckoff; "East Lynne," with Rebecca Warren; "The Wife," with Selma Herman; "Tess of the D'Urbervilles,", "The Charity Ball," and many others notable productions.

His Best Part.

Paul Gilmore is authority for the statement that he has this season the most effective part he has ever played and the most eloquent, brilliant and sympathetic known in modern drama. "The stirring appeal to all that is best in mankind contained in 'The Boys of Company B,'" says Mr. Gilmore, who is starring in the play this season, "is what allured me first. The sequences of the play are logical, its dialogue unusually interesting, its plot absorbing and its characters real men and women. And best of all, in the part of Tony Allen I have the part that appeals to me more than any part I have ever played myself or seen played by another." Mr. Gilmore is booked to appear in his new play at the Academy next Monday night. Seats will go on sale Saturday.

An Auto Heroine.

Contemporaneously with the great auto races at Savannah, Ga., today, the Bijou on North Front street will offer something sensational in the same line. The film is entitled "An Auto Heroine." It has to do with an inventor, his beautiful daughter, some foreign contestants in the same race, their plot to wreck the inventor's car, the beating into insensibility of the rival car's driver at the last moment, the girl's plunge to the rescue, two desperate attempts to wreck the cars and the girl's final triumph as the winner of the great meet. The film is nearly a thousand feet in length and will prove an interesting Thanksgiving diversion for all patrons of the Bijou this afternoon and evening.

Thanksgiving at the Palace.

The Crystal Palace will celebrate Thanksgiving by giving pleasure to others with the big and swell bill it is presenting this week, though today there will be an entire change of acts. The great comedy musical team of Moredock and Watson will be seen in a new sketch that will prove as delightful musically and just as laughable as the one which ended last night and which made a powerful hit with Palace patrons. The Gray sisters will be seen in another pretty and bright sketch, introducing merry jests and catchy songs, while Jack Golden will present a new comedy stunt that will prove a "winner." The orchestra will also render some especially joyous pieces, appropriate to the day. The Palace expects big business today at both matinee and night and, no doubt, expectations will be fully realized.

Thanksgiving on Golf Links.

The annual Thanksgiving tournament for ladies and gentlemen on the links of the Cape Fear Golf Club, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning and continuing all day, will attract many members of that popular organization. Lunch and an oyster roast will be served by the ladies.

SATISFACTORY TO LABOR

The President's Views for Improvement of Labor's Condition.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 25.—The things President Roosevelt has in mind for the improvement of the conditions of labor throughout the country and will probably recommend to congress covers everything we desire," said A. L. Falkner, of Cleveland, Ohio, president of the National Window Glass Workers, who with Vice President W. A. Jarrigan, called at the White House today. "The President's ideas are entirely satisfactory to labor's representatives generally" declared Mr. Falkner.

Mr. Falkner was one of the labor men who attended the President's labor dinner on November 17th.

Admiral Sperry yesterday at Manila received a telegram from the hospital ship Relief, five days overdue at Guam, for which port she sailed from that harbor Nov. 15th. The message came by way of Sorsorgon in Southern Luzon, and stated that the ship was badly damaged by a typhoon which was encountered on Nov. 18th during which the engines were disabled.

Six robbers dynamited the Bank of Page, Nebraska, yesterday, securing $4,000 and escaping.

R. W. Drake, a prominent planter, was murdered at his home near Laneville, Ala., Tuesday night. His house was burned. Neighbors seeing the fire, got his body out.

Robbers dynamited the vault of the Tewnada State Bank, 20 miles east of Wichita, Kan., yesterday, securing $2,500 and escaping on a hand car. A posse is in pursuit.

Impenetrable fogs and mist continue nightly over Tidewater Virginia, making navigation dangerous and seriously crippling shipping. The Old Dominion steamers were unable to sail yesterday on their regular trips.

It is announced that the N. Y., Philadelphia & Norfolk railroad, centering at Cape Charles, Va., and owned by the Pennsylvania, will at once install the telephone system of dispatching trains, eliminating the telegraph.

The criminal court has fixed the trial of Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, his son Robin J. Cooper, and John D. Sharp on the charge of murder of former United States Senator Carmack for December 8th. All pleaded not guilty when arraigned separately. They were refused bail,

The splendid military achievement of General Philip H. Sheridan, whose famous ride was the inspiration of one of the most stirring poems of the civil war, was celebrated at the national capital yesterday when an heroic equestrian statu of the gallant soldier was unveiled amid a scene of martial splendor.

Fifty-three contract laborers or dependents with the Firth Carpet Co., of Firth Cliff, N. Y., are ordered deported to their homes in Scotland and England by the Department of Commerce and Labor and the prosecution of the company for violation of the contract labor laws is under advisement by the government. Many other cases are being considered in the same connection.

The 123rd annual conference of the South Carolina Episcopal church was called to order and organized yesterday at Laurens, S. C., by the presiding officer, Rev. Alpheus W. Wilson, D. D., of Baltimore, senior Bishop of the church. Although 74 years of age and quite feeble, the manner in which he dispatched the business before the conference was commented upon.

J. A. Heaney, an inventor of York, Pa.; H. E. Everding, patent attorney, of Philadelphia, and N. W. Barton, formerly an examiner in the pension office, were placed on trial in Washington yesterday on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government, forgery and destruction of public records in connection with applications for patents for electric globes and filaments.

The fresh outbreak of lawlessness at Tiptonville was the subject of a public statement by Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, yesterday. He says the cause was not the law's delay nor the uncertainty of punishment but men aroused to desperate vengeance. The occurrences are not peculiar to the South but far worse offenses have recently been committed in other places. The negro as a rule is safer in the South and better treated than anywhere else in the country. In the South we have the night rider but in the North is the anarchist who is opposed to government itself. Both are public enemies but between the two the night rider is to be preferred.

Industrial Workers Shot Down by Deputies—Taft's Election.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Perth Amboy, N. J., Nov. 25.—Following a pitched battle between 700 strikers and 12 deputy sheriffs today at the factory of the National Fire Proofing Co., at Keasbey, near here, in which six of the strikers were shot down, Governor J. Franklin Fort despatched four companies of the State National Guard at Trenton to the scene and tonight the streets are patrolled by 250 soldiers. All saloons have been closed.

A feeling of intense excitement prevailed as the strikers declare the deputy sheriffs were not justified in firing upon them. Two of the wounded men are dying here and the four other wounded men are painfully hurt.

For two days there has been rioting at Keasbey and a number of manufacturing towns along the Raritan river. Two weeks ago the men employed by the Raritan River Clay Co., went on strike for higher wages. They marched to other towns to induce employes to leave their work. The strikers nearly all of whom are foreigners, say that they were given to understand before election that if Taft were elected their pay would be restored to $1.50 a day. It is now $1.35. The officials of the factories deny such a promise was made. Yesterday several hundred strikers appeared on the streets flourishing revolvers and when the deputy sheriffs, endeavoring to disperse the gathering, they were met with a fusillade of stones. They continued to advance, however, and the strikers retreated.

FIELDS CLUB TRIALS

Derby Finished Yesterday at Barber Junction—Great Success.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 25.—The derby under the auspices of the Continental Field Trials' Club, which was begun yesterday at Barber Junction, was finished late this afternoon. The weather conditions were ideal the dogs well handled on the whole and the sport altogether enjoyed by the big crowd of sportsmen present.

The judges announced their decision on the field as follows: Master John first; Fishels Honest Scrap, second; Paul Nordayne, third; Jimmie Whitestone, fourth. The judges were Dr. H. S. Atkins, St. Louis; E. H. Osthaus, Toledo, and Udo Fleishman, New York. The allege stake will be pulled off tomorrow with 32 entries.

The suit of Count Boni de Castellance against his former wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, and now the wife of Prick Helie re Sagan, for the custody of his three children was begun in Paris yesterday.

The case of Ray Lamphere, charged with the murder of Mrs. Gunness and her three children at LaPorte, Ind., after a day of argument went to the jury at 5:30 P. M. yesterday. The State's attorney's arraignment of Lamphere was severe. After deliberating until 10:40 P. M. the jury went to bed.

A petition will be filed today in the Corporation Court at Lynchburg for the local Anti-Saloon League, asking that a registrar of one of the precincts be compelled to allow a representative of the League to copy the books of his precinct. The petition is brought about by the local option fight which comes to election December 1st.

A confirmed report late last night was to the effect that the steamer Norfolk, of the Norfolk and Washington line, is ashore in the Potomac river below Washington, about 40 miles. She ran ashore in a dense fog yesterday. It is understood that the passengers have been transferred to another boat. The Merritt-Chapman Company has sent a tug to the scene.

Chairman Payne, of the House Committee on the tariff yesterday received a reply to the invitation to Carnegie to be heard on the metal schedule. Mr. Carnegie thanked the chairman for the invitation but says that he has served his full term in Washington upon tariff matters. His faith in protection wherever necessary is as strong as ever and he continues to eblieve that the surest way to secure needed protection is to reduce duties from time to time and finally abolish them when no longer needed. He attaches supreme importance to present duties upon luxuries used chiefly by the rich from the revenue point of view.

Miss Mattie Hodges, 609 South Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills I have felt better in every way and I am pleased to add my testimonial to the many already given in favor of this remedy. I had kidney trouble for years. My back ached most of the time and when I stooped or lifted, sharp pains would catch me across the loins. I had no strength or energy and was also bothered by a kidney weakness. I used only one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, and they cured my backache, strengthened the kidneys and gave me renewed strength."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Reidsville, Nov. 23.—Relatives here have been notified by the Government that the late Hunter R. Oldham was accidentally killed at sea while en route from Liverpool to this country. Aside from this meagre information his relatives have been unable to learn more.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. Sam Dulin, who chewed a generous mouthful of left ear from Mr. E. Hyland's head Saturday night in a difficulty near Martin's store on North Davidson street, was held in the sum of $250 on the charge of mayhem by Magistrate J. W. Cobb, before whom he was tried late yesterday afternoon.

—Raleigh, Nov. 24.—Mr. C. H. Belvin, one of Raleigh's most prominent citizens, is dangerously ill at his home on Hillsboro street and there is little if any hope of his recovery. He was for thirty years a successful banker here and retired from active business about two years ago. Partial paralysis has come upon him, involving his speech.

—Newbern Sun: Seven car loads of gum logs were brought up to Newbern this morning on the P. O. & W. train from Pamlico county. Each log averaged about 20 feet in length and 3 to 5 feet in diameter. These logs will be shipped to the northern market, where they will be exported to Germany. For the past several years this county has been shipping much gum wood.

—Statesville, Nov. 24.—Westbound freight train No. 73, Conductor H. L. Tomlin and Engineer R. L. James in charge, was wrecked at a point about five miles east of Statesville this morning at 3 o'clock. The wreck was caused by a broken rail and fifteen cars and the tender of one engine were piled high on both sides of the track. Fortunately no one was on the portion of the train which left the track and no one was hurt.

—Salisbury, Nov. 24.—Warren Whitmire, colored, an employe of the Southern Railway Company, was arrested in Salisbury today when he appealed to a physician for treatment of a gunshot wound in the stomach. He is believed to be the burglar who was shot by Mrs. Maud Feamster in her home in this city last week when she fired upon some one in the darkness at her beside. Whitmire's wounds are not considered dangerous and it is thought he will stand trial for the crime.

—Wadesboro Ansonian: Two mail sacks were robbed at the depot Saturday night while in the mail room there. One was put off of No. 41 which is due here at 9:34 P. M., and the other from No. 32, due here at 8:40. From one a registered package containing a handkerchief and pin was taken, while the other was robbed of a registered package containing $5.00. The sacks were cut open and left after the registered packages had been robbed. S. A. L. Detective R. H. Moore was here yesterday to investigate the matter.

—Industrial News: A Greensboro institution that is responding with a will to increased business prosperity and activity is the Greensboro Life Insurance Company, which has just voted to add the sum of $100,000 to its surplus fund, thus increasing its assets to more than $400,000. This decision was reached at a meeting of the stockholders held in this city last night, and it is significant that the shareholders, representing about 75 per cent. of the stock, offered to subscribe to the entire amount of the additional surplus.

—Spencer, Nov. 24—The Union Copper Mine at Gold Hill, Stanly county, which was closed a year ago on account of a big drop in the copper market, will reopen with 200 employes this week and will run on full time. The main shaft of the mine is about 1,000 feet deep and is filled with water. It will require the use of three pumps throwing 8-inch streams for three months in removing the water. Two other mines adjacent to the property will be operated at once. It is also stated that the Southern Mining Company, operating for gold ore, will resume work at Gold Hill this month.

—Newbern Correspondent of Charlotte Observer: Oysters have been selling at retail for some days for 20 cents a quart. There are dozens of persons who peddle them on the streets and go from house to house. Sweet potatoes are selling for about 50 cents a bushel and great quantities are brought here on boats. Turkeys are bringing about 18 cents a pound, or about $1 each. Butter is very high, the usual price being 40 cents a pound. There is very little butter made here, nearly the whole amount consumed being creamery butter.

—Charlotte Observer: We have located him, by George! We mean Sheriff M. C. House, of Lonoke county, Ark., whose case was discussed in yesterday's Observer; the sheriff who got up out of his bed in a hospital, organized a force, went against the night riders and put them permanently out of business, and when complimented by the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, wrote it that he was born in North Carolina, was a Confederate soldier, and that "I done nothing but my duty." A friend brought us last evening the roster of North Carolina troops in the civil war in which appears that Milton C. House of the county of Cabarrus, enlisted in Company H., Eighth Regiment just as Sheriff House of Lonoke county, Ark., said he did. Shake old man; so glad we found you.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

Danderine
PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
"As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Cut This Out — FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 25.—The cotton market was less active today and showed continued irregularity, but the undertone was fairly steady and the close was steady, net three points lower to 8 points higher, late months being relatively firm. Sales were estimated at 550,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 3 points on all months except August, which was net unchanged and during the early session ruled about 2 to 3 points net lower, owing to disappointing cables, pre-holiday liquidation and rather bearish showing of the crop estimates by New York Cotton Exchange members. But offerings were well absorbed and during the afternoon prices developed considerable firmness on covering and some fresh buying for long account which was probably promoted by talk of steadier interior markets and executions of a broadening public demand after the holiday. After showing a net advance of 1 to 5 points on the active months, prices eased off 3 or 4 points from the top under realizing. The individual crop estimates of 170 members of the New York Cotton Exchange range from 12,400,000 to 14,650,000 bales, the average being 13,321,000 bales. Last year average estimate of exchange members was 11,973,000 bales. Private advices from manufacturers reported an unusually good spot demand with factors inclined to hold. Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged. Port receipts were heavy, but were again exceeded by the day's exports, and the heavier movement of the last two or three days is supposed to reflect the demand for end of the month commitments.

Receipts at the ports today were 90,507 bales, against 64,131 last week and 56,054 last year; for the week 425,000 bales, against 405,493 last week and 335,830 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 21,169 bales, against 14,444 last year and at Houston 25,196 bales, against 2,510 last year.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 25.—The day before the holiday was generally quiet in the dry goods jobbing houses. Selling agents are still doing a good business and many duplicates are coming forward for spring merchandise. Cotton goods are firm. Cotton yarns are steady and in fair demand. Silks are well sold in the large houses. Knit goods and hosiery are in better demand from a wide territory. Advances in the London wool markets attracted much attention among dress goods and men's wear buyers.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 25.—The eve of a holiday is looked to for some closing up of outstanding speculative accounts. That fact and the scare administered to the shorts by the sudden revival of strength in the market yesterday conduced to the active buying today which went on during the first two hours of the session of the Stock Exchange. This buying was sufficient to enable the market to stand up against the heavy profit taking sales which were going on to meet the demand. Thereafter the resisting power of the market weakened and lower prices were registered. The supposed imminence of a financial project for the benefit of Southern Pacific continued to exercise a strong influence on sentiment until it was perceived that whatever demand was incited by this was being freely supplied. Southern Pacific was carried to a new record price at 120 1-2 and Union Pacific sold at the highest price of the present year, at 184 5-8. These were the exceptionally strong stocks, but their course served as an index of a tendency. The tone of reaction became more clearly defined with the announcement of the Erie project for the issue of $30,000,000 of 5 per cent. collateral bonds. It would be impossible to say whether the decline in Erie which followed was caused wholly by speculative realizing or by disappointment over the form and scope of the financial plan. A rise of a point in Atchison was lost on the publication of the statement in earnings for October which were undeniably favorable with a gain in net over October of last year of $498,300.

The New York Public Utilities and the Coalers were strong at times, the latter on account of the prosperous conditions for the industry indicated by the customary extra disbursement of 10 per cent. by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, although Lackawanna itself dropped 6 1-2 points. Both groups were affected by suppositions of coming favorable Supreme Court decisions on the 80-cent gas law and on the contested commodities clause of the Hepburn law. The agitation for reduction of duties on steel had some depressing effect on United States Steel.

Bonds were strong. Total sales, par value, were $7,528,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 963,800 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 25.—Money on call easy 1 1-2 to 2 per cent.; ruling rate 1 3-4; closing bid 1 1-2, offered at 1 3-4. Time loans soft and rather dull; sixty days and ninety days 3 per cent., six months 3 1-2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4 per cent.; sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8415 to 25 for sixty day bills and at 4.8650 for demand. Commercial bills 4.84 3-4 to 4.84 7-8. Bar silver 49 1-4. Mexican dollars 45.

THE LIGHT-WEIGHT AUTOMOBILE RACE

Won by an Italian Car With American Driver Yesterday.

THE RACE A GRAND SUCCESS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Race Course, Savannah, Ga., Nov. 25.—A little red Italian car, with four cylinders that hummed like a giant bumble bee and with an American driver at the wheel, today won the first international light-weight car race ever held in this country. In doing so the car and driver set a high record of 52.56 miles an hour for the 196 mile journey over a part of the circuit which tomorrow will be used by the grand prizes racers. William M. Hilliard, of Boston, who drove a Lancia car, proved the winning combination. The elapsed time was 3 hours, 43 minutes and 33 seconds.

Robert Burman, driving Buick car No. 8, finished second, more than six minutes behind the winner. L. B. Lorimer in a Chalmers-Detroit, No. 10 fought his way into third place.

E. T. Hearn with Buick No. 11 was fourth, and Al Poole's Italian Isotta fifth. Then came a whole flock of two-cylinder Maxwells, Arthur See, in No. 9, finishing 6th and Carl Kelsey in No. 17 finishing 7th. Costello's Maxwell No. 12 and Munweiler's No. 15 were running in 8th and 9th positions respectively when the race was called off.

A crowd of many thousands filled the two big grand stands at the finish line and other thousands lined the rectangular course on all four of its regular sides. But the crowd remained at a respectful distance, for 600 militiamen under martial law were thrown about the racing circuit and they kept the pathway of the cars absolutely free from trespass until the race was officially declared to be at an end.

While there were many minor mishaps to the cars the only serious wreck came at the very close of the day's racing. Easter, driving Buick No. 14, had been in trouble early in the race and was driving along pell mell on his 14th lap when he lost the road and went crashing into a ditch. The mechanician, Frank Thompson, was hurled from the car and rendered unconscious. It was at first thought he had been killed, but later he regained consciousness and it was said tonight he would surely recover.

Car No. 13, a Chalmers-Detroit, driven by W. R. Burns, crashed into a tree on the first round and the chauffeur lost four of his front teeth. Burns did not draw No. 13 originally but exchanged with a more timid driver who was fearful lest the fated number should bring him ill-luck.

The race was a duel between the cars that finished first and second from the very start. Burman in his Buick held the lead for the entire first half of the race. Then he stopped to replace a lost nut and Hilliard drove the Lancia into a lead which he never relinquished. Only once did the little red car come to a standstill. Then it was only for a second to allow the mechanician to take on board two small cans of lubricating oil.

The Lancia kept humming away over the ground with engine muffled while Burman in his Buick and Lorimer in a Chalmers-Detroit kept snapping and barking with open exhausts at his heels. Once Lorimer got by Burman and held the honor of second position during the 14th, 15th and 16th of the 20 laps in the race, but Burman, known as one of the most daring drivers at the course, kept crowding his engines and humming his car forward until he was again in second place. Hilliard meantime had gained nearly a lap on his struggling rivals. Early in the race it was seen that the Lancia was running more smoothly and holding the road better than any of the other cars and it was hailed as a winner as early as the third or fourth lap.

The 15 cars starting in the race—12 American, two Italian and one of French manufacture—were sent away at half minute intervals and kept in clusters throughout. At times there were as high as four of the little racers in the home stretch in view of the stands and the sharpness of the struggles between them kept the great crowds continuously on their feet.

ODELL COTTON MILLS SOLD

Property of Insolvent Company Purchased at $166,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 25.—By decree of the Federal court the property of the Odell Manufacturing Company now in the hands of receivers, comprising three big cotton mills and much real estate, was sold today at noon in Concord to Henry T. Dechert, of Philadelphia, representing the pooled interests of the creditors. The purchase price was $166,000 and notes and stocks in other properties held by the corporation brought this up to $175,400.50. The sale will be submitted to Judge Boyd of Greensboro, December 7th and if confirmed the operation of the mills will be resumed. One of the four mills was recently destroyed by fire and this operates against full recovery by the creditors.

STANDARD OIL STATISTICS

Mr. Archbold in His Testimony Gives Some Interesting Figures—Cheapening Cost of Oil to Consumer. Condition of Oil Fields.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 25.—Detailed information on the magnitude and diversity of the business of the Standard Oil Company was given by John D. Archbold, vice president of the company, on the resumption of his testimony today in the hearing of the federal suit to dissolve the oil combination. Mr. Archbold asserted that it was the Standard which, by elimiating the jobbers and retailers, stepped in and greatly reduced the price of oil to the consumer.

The hearings were adjourned today after a brief session until next Monday, when Mr. Archbold will resume his testimony.

That even those closely identified with the Standard in its early days did not recognize its future possibilities was brought out today when Mr. Archbold said that in the eighties fears were widespread that the supply of crude oil would be depleted, and that, accordingly, he parted with some of his trust shares at 70 and 80 cents on the dollar.

Much of the day was spent in spreading upon the record figures showing the production and consumption of oil in the periods of years between 1882 and the present time.

Moritz Rosenthal, of counsel for the Standard Oil Company, developed from Mr. Archbold that the jobber and retailer exacted extortionate profits in the early days, which caused complaint and the Standard tried to get closer to the consumer. Oil was taken in bulk cars instead of barrels to the marketing centers where it was distributed to the consumer in wagons. This method, he said, not only increased the oil trade, but cheapened the cost to the consumer.

Mr. Archbold said the production of crude oil in Pennsylvania was 5,260,745 barrels in 1870 and that the maximum of production was reached 1891 with 33,009,236 barrels. In West Virginia the maximum of crude oil produced was 16,195,675 barrels. Since that time there has been a lessening of crude oil production in those states.

The mid-continent field, which includes Kansas, Oklahoma, and contiguous States, said Mr. Archbold, showed a constantly increasing production.

The Standard started purchasing producing properties in 1899, when the "shut in" movement started.

The witness said that in 1906 the total crude production in the United States was 126,493,936 barrels, of which the Standard produced 14,052,113 barrels. In 1906 the total consumption of oil by the Standard Oil Company was 64,958,301 barrels.

Mr. Archbold laughingly said that he had little opinion of the productive capacity of the mid-continent field when it was first discovered and said: "I said at the time that I would undertake to drink all the oil that was produced in that section."

The value of the refineries that went into the Standard Oil trust in 1882 was $17,000,000, said Mr. Archbold, and the value in 1906 of the refineries in the company, including manufactories, was $57,689,560.

SWEEP OF PROHIBITION

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Alarm at the prohibition wave which has swept over various sections of the country and plans for combatting it effectively were voiced last night by speakers at the monthly dinner of the Manufacturers and Dealers Club. Judge Rufus Potts, of Pittsfield, ex-Governor George W. Peck, of Wisconsin and Frederick P. Esler, editor of Humanity, outlined a campaign which they said alone will be at the attacks of anti-saloon forces.

They included among their recommendations the following: Ministers and church influence must be divorced from the prohibition question.

Business men having dealings with the liquor trade must be made to feel, through business relations, the undesirability of helping its opponents.

Retail jobbers should be supervised to see that they are of good character.

"The key to the situation is to drive the ministers out of the fight," declared Mr. Ester. "If the minister preaches prohibition in the pulpit, if women as in Philadelphia, will march the streets with banners, singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers"—and its a good march—there's no force that can beat a fight like that. The question is not a general one although it has moral aspect and no Christian minister has the right to stand in his pulpit and preach it.

Mr. Peck told of his experiences in States having prohibition laws. In Kentucky 90 per cent. of the counties are "dry", yet there are bottles in nearly every ice box. In Atlanta, Ga., the real estate is dead. In Alabama prohibition will continue for fear the colored man will get intoxicants but he'll get them anyway. The dispensary system in Oklahoma is a scandal."

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." HUNDRED PERISHED ON BURNING VESSEL

FRANTIC EFFORTS TO ESCAPE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Valletta, Island of Malta, Nov. 15.—A terrible disaster in which more than a hundred persons lost their lives occurred at the entrance to this port this morning. The British steamer Sardinia of the Ellerman line, hailing from Liverpool and bound for Alexandria with a crew of 44 Englishmen, 11 first and six second cabin English passengers and nearly 200 Arab pilgrims aboard, caught fire and within a few minutes was a roaring furnace the flames bursting upward to a height of 200 feet from frequent explosions in the hold.

So rapidly did the fire spread that the frantic efforts of the crew to operate the fire apparatus proved useless for it seemed but a moment before the upper works and masts crashed down upon the deck, while the ship's boats were crushed by the falling debris or set fire and quickly burned.

Safety lay only in the sea, for no one could save himself except by jumping overboard and taking chances of being picked up. Assistance was hurried to the burning vessel from all the warships in the harbor and from the shore but the work of rescue was greatly impeded by the strong tide that was running.

Even the naval launches were unable to go alongside. Among the Arabs there was a panic that could not be controlled. Many of them were too frightened to jump overboard and they were burned to death. Others cast themselves into the waves and were drowned.

The crew behaved with admirable courage, serving out life preservers to the last, and working the pumps. When the pumps became useless, Captain Charles Littler commander of the Sardinia took the helm and directed his ship towards the shore so long as it could be navigated. He perished at his post. First Officer Frank Watson, all three engineers, Seagraves, Hislop and Neill, 18 of the ship's company and two first-class passengers, one of them a boy named Grant, are missing. Fifty or more bodies have been recovered and 70 persons were rescued. It is impossible at present to say just how many were drowned or burned to death, but the number will doubtless far exceed a hundred.

The vessel drifted around three times and finally was beached broadside on the rocks at the mouth of the harbor. She is still burning and will be a total loss.

The British Vice Admiral, Sir Ashton Curzon-Howe and Admiral Fisher directed the rescuing boats which did gallant work in saving those who were yet alive and bringing the bodies of the dead ashore. Capt. Littler's body which was terribly mutilated, was landed this afternoon. The other bodies were also mutilated and burned. 56 of the injured are being cared for in the hospitals. One of the rescued passengers gave a graphic account of the disaster.

"The Sardinia," he said, "left Valetta at 9:45 this morning. We were just outside the harbor and the crew were securing the anchor when the cry of 'fire' was heard. Flames could be seen issuing from a ventilator on the port side. A hose was promptly brought up and a stream poured down the ventilator, but this did no good. In less than 10 minutes flames were streaming out of the other ventilators.

"In the meantime naval pinnaces hurried to the scene. They could not approach closely on account of the high seas and falling spars. The great majority of the European passengers succeeded in reaching shore. The Arabs, among whom were many women and children clung together shrieking, and but few of them would jump overboard, although urged to do so.

"The ships boats were rendered useless by the flames, and no attempt was made to get them over the sides. Soon the hatches were blown off with loud explosions, throwing the Arabs into the air and killing and injuring many of them. After a few minutes had been spent in trying to put out the fire, nothing remained but to jump overboard."

The whole vessel amidships was wrapped in the flames. The ships was wrapped in the flames. The Arab passengers were told to leave the hatch to which they clung desperately but they refused to move. All who remained forward perished, except some of those who leaped into the water.

The cause of the fire is not known. Unquestionably explosions occurred, as it was first believed that the raipd spread of the flames was due largely to the flowing naptha.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong; He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complains. THE INSANITY PLEA

Again Fails in the Case of Benjamin F. Gilbert.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—Holding that evidence introduced tending to show insanity since his conviction was simply along the same lines of "insanity evidence" offered at the time of his trial, Judge Hanckel today overruled the motion for the empaneling of a jury to inquire into the present mental condition of Benjamin F. Gilbert the youth recently convicted of the murder of his sweetheart, Miss Amanda Morse, whom he shot down on Campostella bridge last summer and who must die in the electric chair unless the court of appeals of Virginia interferes in the action of the lower court or executive clemency is extended by Governor Swanson. Counsel for Gilbert gave notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

HELD OFFICERS AT BAY

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Dallas, Ga., Nov. 25.—After following for seevral miles the trail of the safe blowers who dynamited the bank vault at Buchanan early Tuesday morning, Deputy Sheriff Colbert this afternoon came upon three strangers in the woods near this place. The men covered the officers with revolvers and made their escape. The supposed burglars are reported as having been seen in Dallas tonight and the town is guarded to prevent the escape of the trio who are heavily armed.

Although the safe and vault of the bank at Buchanan was badly damaged by the explosion the burglars failed to get any money or valuables.

SALE OF STEAMSHIP LINES

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Portland, Me., Nov. 25.—The assets of the Consolidated Steamship Lines of Maine were sold at public auction today for $6,500,000 to a sub-committee of the bondholders of the company consisting of Alvin Krech, Henry R. Mallory and Henry P. Booth. The sub-committee will transfer the assets to the Atlantic Gulf and West Indies Steamship Lines, which was incorporated in this city yesterday for the purpose of taking over the affairs of the Consolidated Steamship Lines, a holding company for the Morse Steamship lines.

REVENUE CUTTER CRUISES

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Jennie E. Ballough died at Sumter, S. C., on Oct. 12, 1908, at the age of forty years. For five years or more, her life had been a burden because of sore and grievous sickness; but amid it all, she was full of courage and good cheer, and hoped even against hope. She spoke repeatedly of her going away, but always with a bright spirit, and her open confession was that her death could have no sting. To her mother and child, she was long a care; but just as much a treasure, and no sort of regret now lingers in the home, except that her place is vacant.

"Go to thy peaceful rest;
For thee we need not weep;
The righteous dead, by heaven blessed,
No more by sin and sorrow pressed,
Are hushed in quiet sleep."
